

Zachary Custom Builders

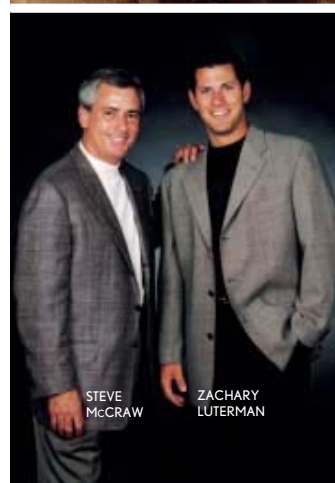

Zachary Custom Builders is an award-winning industry leader recognized for excellence in all aspects of the custom homebuilding experience. Zachary utilizes a specialized team of architects, builders, and interior designers to capture the lifestyle, needs, and dreams of every client.

Year after year, Zachary continues to set the benchmark for excellence through meticulous construction supervision, state-of-the-art technologies, crucial interior design direction, and unsurpassed craftsmanship. Each cherished client works with the Zachary team side by side from the initial site selection and architectural design to the final backsplash drawings and punch list walk-through. No detail is overlooked as each space is personalized for each family and their unique lifestyle.

Each homeowner becomes a lifelong friend of Zachary Custom Builders, providing years of priceless acclaim and referrals. The company's commitment to complete customer satisfaction begins well before the onset of construction and lasts long after clients move into their beautiful, new Zachary custom home.

Zachary Custom Builders designs and builds estate, single-family, and luxury garden homes. The company's homes range from 2,400 to more than 10,000 square feet priced from $500,000 to more than $3 million. Zachary's recent purchase of 22 acres in Frisco will feature an exclusive, gated community with 66 luxury garden home sites. Custom home pricing will range from the high $500's to the $800's. Zachary is currently accepting home site reservations with anticipated construction beginning late this year.

Zachary's magnificent projects are located throughout Dallas' distinctive Preston Hollow and Park Cities neighborhoods. The company's homes are also featured around Frisco, within the gated communities of Creekside at Stonebriar, Stonebriar Park, and Starwood. For discriminating clients, Zachary Custom Builders also creates luxurious lifestyles with a Bluffview address in the gated enclave of Bretton Woods. This unique setting features luxury garden homes from $1.2 million with private creek and greenbelt views. The company's website offers customers an in-depth introduction to Zachary Custom Builder's team.
